

Republic for the united States

The 1825 Crimes Act

This act provides all prior legislation that otherwise was not repealed. That includes the 1790 Crimes Act, the piracy Act of 1819, and the Piracy Act of 1820, and the entire act of the Bank Act of 1816.

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1. Residential Arson:             | Death                                  |
| 2. Non-Residential Arson:         | 10 Years of hard labor and a Fine      |
| 3. Murder:                        | Death                                  |
| 4. Murder due to rape:            | Death                                  |
| 5. Rape:                          | Death                                  |
| 6. Violent Theft:                 | 10 Years with hard labor and Fine      |
| 7. Non-Violent Theft:             | 5 Years with Fine                      |
| 8. Theft on a Vessel of Navy:     | 10 Years hard labor                    |
| 9. Vessel Arson:                  | 10 Years hard Labor                    |
| 10. Extortion:                    | 20 Years hard Labor                    |
| 11. Embezzlement of bank funds:   | Death                                  |
| 12. Coin embezzlement of Mint:    | Death                                  |
| 13. Counterfeiting:               | 10 Years hard labor and replacement of |
| 14. Counterfeiting of Bank money: | Death                                  |
| 15. Counterfeiting Custom forms:  | 10 years hard labor                    |
| 16. Counterfeiting Gold Coins:    | 10 Years hard Labor                    |
| 17. Counterfeiting Silver Coins:  | 10 Years hard Labor                    |
| 18. Kidnapping:                   | Death                                  |
| 19. Death from kidnapping:        | Death                                  |

Because there were no federal prisons, all sentencings took place at State Level prisons.

All other crimes against human beings are done at the State and Local levels.